

2009-2010 ANNUAL FUND REPORT

You heard the good news. La Salle will remain independent and is experiencing new growth. Did you know that 99.6% of our parents said they would make the same decision to enroll their son at La Salle? How many schools in this country would receive that degree of affirmation?

Our incoming 2010 student population is larger than expected. Word of mouth and strong parent and alumni involvement encouraged many families to come and see. La Salle remains student-centered and is committed to each young man's intellectual, personal, and moral growth.

Thank you for supporting us during two years of uncertainty. While that period of uncertainty placed us in a difficult financial situation, you responded, and that made all the difference. With each challenge comes additional opportunities. La Salle can not rest on its past accomplishments but must continually adapt to the changing times. Our growing HVCC cooperative program is just one example of that growth.

Great Brothers and Lay Teachers made a difference in so many lives, and that wonderful spirit is present today. Renewed involvement by our alumni, parents, past parents, and friends is helping us grow and provide the needed financial support for students to attend La Salle. Imagine what would happen if an additional 20% or more of our alumni decided to get involved. You are already making a significant impact; please encourage others to make a similar difference. Thank you for joining us on an exciting journey of growth.

Our December band concert at the Troy Music Hall was inspirational. Music has a way of touching the soul. Thank you for being an inspiration to me and to all of us at La Salle Institute as we strive to touch the souls of the young men God has entrusted to our care.

Wishing you a safe and Blessed New Year,

Brother Carl Malachuk

*Be it known to all who enter here,
That Christ is the reason for this school.
The unseen but ever present
Teacher in its classes,
The model of its faculty and
The inspiration of its students."*

When donating to organizations, one often asks where the money goes. As you know, the economic climate facing public and private secondary schools alike has been rather bleak. Many schools are cutting important programs, large numbers of their faculty, and necessary capital expenditures. Your gifts help ensure that La Salle Institute remains viable, relevant, and educationally strong. We maintain an outstanding band program, exceptional athletics programs, and many other activities which other schools, private and public, are forced to cut. These programs were instrumental in the formation of the inner-potential La Salle graduates were able to realize; they create a sense of dedication, endurance, time-management, and self-motivation which continues to be the cornerstone of a Lasallian education.

You not only help programs, you help families, and you help people. Consider the family with two or three boys who would like to continue their education at La Salle, or would like to send younger sons to the school their older boys attended. Some families may be blessed with the opportunity to send their children to La Salle without financial assistance, but what about the boy whose brother, father, uncle, or grandfather attended La Salle? Can we turn away such a person because of an inability to pay full tuition? La Salle also offers academic scholarships to boys who are intellectually gifted. Our mission includes providing an opportunity for students who strengthen the intellectual atmosphere of our school. Some of our Cadet Colonels, valedictorians, team captains, and musical virtuosos have been recipients of these academic scholarships.

Your generosity leads La Salle Institute and Lasallians on to the future with confidence in the ability of those who will lead after you. For over 160 years, La Salle has made Men of Boys, and these men have become captains of industry and of naval vessels, pillars of their communities and of their professions, strong in their faith and strong in their families. The men who leave La Salle now are destined to make no less a mark on their world than did the graduates who came before them. Be proud; your efforts have equipped our future generations with the skills of their predecessors. This is your legacy; and for this, we are grateful.

Make a Gift

Gifts from you, our alumni, parents, and friends enable La Salle Institute to continue its tradition of excellence. By making a gift, you are making an investment in the life of La Salle that has a direct impact on our students and their Lasallian experience.
