

NOMINATE A YOUNG ALUM!

La Salle Institute's Young Alumni Award was started by the Alumni Association in 2009 to recognize the professional and civic accomplishments of the school's youngest alumni. We must receive a nomination in order to consider someone for this award. It is to be awarded annually during Homecoming and Reunion weekend in September. Please use the nomination form, and if necessary, include supporting evidence or documentation along with your nomination.

NOMINATION CRITERIA:

- Nominees will have shown great promise and accomplishment in their chosen profession and/or community, public or humanitarian service.
- Nominees should have maintained their connection to La Salle via service; participation in school events, with recruitment, on a committee, with the Alumni Association, or a class representative; or in any other meaningful way.
- The nominee must have graduated from La Salle no more than 15 years prior to the year of the award.
- Nominees for the 2010 award must have graduated in 1995 or later.
- No more than 3 alumni shall be chosen in a given year.

Past Award Recipients:

2010- William Jabour '98
2010- Louis Polsinello III '00
2010- David Reed '02

Nominations are due by August 1, 2010. Once nominees are compiled, a committee of alumni, La Salle staff and current faculty will review and choose this year's recipient(s).
