Student Code of Conduct, 2006 Homecoming Dance

Dear Parents,

This student code of conduct is presented to you and your son because your son, along with his guest, plans on attending the 2006 Homecoming Dance on Saturday October 7, 2006. It is our obligation to ensure that all students, their guests, and members of the faculty have an enjoyable and safe evening. To that end, all students and their guests are expected to be on their best behavior before, during, and after the Homecoming dance.

The Homecoming Dance is a formal, school-sponsored event. All students are expected to comply with all school rules, procedures and regulations before, during and after the event. The consequences for violating any school rules and regulations will be most severe. This is particularly true with respect to the use and/or possession of drugs and/or alcohol before, during and after the Homecoming Dance. It is also true for any behavior that would cause embarrassment and/or discredit the reputation of La Salle Institute.

Specific Consequences: Any student who arrives at the Homecoming Dance under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol will be required to be picked up by a parent and will be dismissed from La Salle Institute. Any student who is in possession of drugs and/or alcohol, or who consumes drugs and/or alcohol before or during the Homecoming Dance will be required to be picked up by a parent and will be dismissed from La Salle Institute. Any student who, in the opinion of the administration, conducts himself in a manner that would cause embarrassment and/or discredit the reputation of La Salle Institute will be required to be picked up by a parent and will be dismissed from La Salle Institute. Any other rule violations will be dealt with in a severe manner with consequences ranging from multiple detentions to dismissal.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Herzog, Jr.
Principal

Agreement to Comply with the Code of Conduct

I have received, read, understand, and will comply with the Code of Conduct for the 2006 Homecoming Dance. I will also ensure that my guest behaves in a proper manner. I will not violate any school rules, procedure, or regulations before, during, or after the Homecoming Dance. My guest and I will be on our best behavior at all times. I understand that by signing this document I agree to abide by and comply with all the terms, conditions and requirements outlined above.
