

2020-21 La Salle Institute “Backpack List”

Science

John Coleman (Environmental Science, Biology H, Living Environment)

- Pens (blue or black ink)
- Pencils
- Large notebook
- Folder or binder

John Leonard (AP Chem, Chemistry H and R)

- Printer paper to print out notes. (The notes have a lot of blank spaces that they fill in-- mainly the calculations and diagrams.)
- A regular notebook (any type)
- Loose leaf paper for when they can eventually hand stuff in
- Calculators are always allowed.

George Rapp ( AP Physics, Applied Physics and Physics H)

- Spiral notebook (Multiple Subject notebook)
- Scientific calculator.

History

Rich Eddings ( History 6, Global 1R, Global 2H and R)

- Black/blue pens AND red pens
- pencils
- cheap pocket calculator
- Composition notebook with at least 80 pages
- Folder with 2 pockets
- Laptop with charger
- Water bottle
- Disinfecting wipes
- Hand sanitizer

Jaime Hayes (AP US, AP Politics/Economics, US History H and R)

- Notebook
- Pen(traditional blue or black)
- Pencil
- Folder or Binder
- Laptop (if they prefer one, but not necessary)

Math

All Math Courses:

- Box of #2 Pencils
- Calculator Alg 1 or higher TI-84; MS scientific
- Notebook
- Folder
- Ruler or straight edge
- 1 EXPO marker

Geometry (the above mentioned materials and)

- Binder
- Compass
- Protractor

English

All English classes

- Laptop or Chromebook
- The assigned book (which students will be notified of as the year begins and continues)
- Agenda (Middle School Students)

Spanish

- Laptop/Device
- Several blue/black ink pens
- Several pencils
- Notebook(s)-depending on individual classes
- Folder
- Package of tissues
- Water bottle(s)
- Hand Sanitizer
- **Extra mask

Business Classes

- Laptops or chrome book
- Headphones

Religion

- Laptop
- Notebook
- Writing Utensils